

Kathy Brink earned her Bachelor of Music in music education from Susquehanna University (Selinsgrove, PA) and her Master of Music in music education from Ithaca College. A former public school music teacher for over 11 years, she also has served as guest conductor for several children's choir workshops and festivals. She studied organ with Susan Hegburg at Susquehanna University and H. William Greene at Ithaca College as well as Mark Laubach of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Wilkes-Barre, and voice with Sister Alphonsa Concillio of Marywood University.

For the past 23 years, she has been director of music at St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Port Jervis, NY where she serves as organist and director of musical groups which have included a children's choir, adult choir and Joyful Noise, a multicultural drumming and xylophone ensemble. She has sung with the Arcadia Chorale of Scranton, PA for 14 years. She has been director of the Four Seasons Chorale, Port Jervis, NY since its re-organization in 2013. She is a member of NAFME, PMEA, ACDA, RSCM (Royal School of Church Music) in America and AGO (American Guild of Organists).

